Docent Talk – Monet: The Late Years. Join Docent Alfred Escoffier for an illustrated presentation on the paintings of Claude Monet on display at the deYoung Museum from Feb. 16-May 27. The exhibit features 50 paintings by Monet from the final phase of his long career. During his late years, the well traveled Monet stayed close to home, and was inspired by the variety of the elements making up his own garden at Giverny. Boldly balancing representation and abstraction, Monet's late works redefined the master of impressionism as a forbearer of modernism.
