OFFLINE ACTIVITIES

In the Kitchen

Easy Leftover Turkey Enchilada Pie

Ingredients

- 3 Tbsp olive oil
- ¼ cup chopped onion
- ½ tsp cumin, if you have it
- 2 cups shredded leftover turkey (or adjust to suit—this amount is for a pie plate-sized batch)
- 8 corn or flour tortillas (or adjust if making more or less than one pie plate-sized recipe), cut into quarters
- 1 10-oz can red enchilada sauce

- 1 ½ – 2 cups shredded cheese—cheddar or mix of cheddar and Monterey jack, even some pieces of Velveeta, if you like

Instructions

Soften onions in olive oil and mix in the cumin, if desired

Add turkey and heat through

Butter or use a bit of olive oil to coat a pie plate

Coat pieces of tortilla with enchilada sauce and spread a layer on the bottom of the pie plate to fully cover

Add a layer of turkey and a layer of cheese

Repeat the process, adding enchilada-coated tortilla pieces, then a layer of turkey and onion mixture and cheese. End with a layer of coated tortilla pieces

Pour over any remaining enchilada sauce

[Note—you can also add leftover veggies or sweet potatoes to the layers, if desired.]

Bake at 350 for 25 – 30 minutes, until bubbly

¾ cup shredded parmesan cheese

Salt and pepper, optional, to taste

Instructions

Bring four cups salted water (2 teaspoons +/- of salt) to a boil

Add macaroni and cook according to package instructions—9 to 12 minutes usually

Pour cheese sauce over drained cooked macaroni

Keep Your Sense of Humor

A grandfather was delivering his grandchildren to their home one day when a fire truck zoomed past. Sitting in the front seat of the fire truck was a Dalmatian dog. The children started discussing the dog's duties.

"They use him to keep crowds back," said one child.

"No," said another. "He's just for good luck."

A third child brought the argument to a close. "They use the dogs," she said firmly, "to find the fire hydrants."

When my grandson asked me how old I was, I teasingly replied, "I'm not sure." "Look in your underwear, Grandpa," he advised "Mine says I'm 4 to 6." (WOW! I really like this one--it says I'm only 38!)

A grandmother was telling her little granddaughter what her own childhood was like. "We used to skate outside on a pond. I had a swing made from a tire; it hung from a tree in our front yard. We rode our pony. We picked wild raspberries in the woods." The little girl was wide-eyed, taking this all in. At last she said, "I sure wish I'd gotten to know you sooner!"

A college class was told they had to write a short story in as few words as possible. The instructions were: The short story had to contain the following three things:

- (1) Religion
- (2) Sexuality
- (3) Mystery

Below is the only A+ short story in the entire class.

"Good God, I'm pregnant; I wonder who did it."

DUE TO MY ISOLATION. I
FINISHED 3 BOOKS
YESTERDAY.
AND BELIEVE ME.
THAT'S A LOT OF COLOURING.
