Marin Villages' 10th Anniversary

Our 1st of 10 events celebrating Marin Villages 10th anniversary was a resounding success.

TPV member Shirley Cooney, pictured, got into the swing of things with 25 other members, volunteers and friends.

What could be better, a little wine, some homemade pot stickers, and more than $1600 raised to benefit Marin Villages!

Stories and More Stories

Wednesday, May 22, 10:30 - noon 120 Geldert Dr., Tiburon

A month or so ago, we started the "Who Knew" section of the Marin Villages newsletter to help our members, volunteers, and donors to get to know some of the wonderful life stories we all have.

Last month we featured TPV member Peter Davis, who also spoke at our TPV gathering on March 5. Shortly we will feature Georgette Owens, a wonderful painter, on our website. But we all have stories to share.

Come share some highlight of your life with other TPV and Marin Villages community at this informal gathering on Wednesday, May 22, at Cherie Sorokin's home.

Sally Warren will start us out with tales of her work at Wells Fargo as a "repo" officer, and as a volunteer supernumerary at SF Opera. Come share your story, too!

This event is open to all Marin Villages Members/Volunteers who want to share a story, or learn more about members of our Marin Villages community!

Click here to RSVP to the office by Monday, May
