January 2023 Newsletter

---

Cherie Sorokin, editor

Another year ahead! Who knows what adventures it will bring? But whatever happens, there will still be wonderful friendships among members and volunteers of TPV and Marin Villages. Weather and Covid and other “stuff” notwithstanding, looking forward to seeing you all in January and throughout the year!

Made any New Year's resolutions?

Consider the advice in this video from a four-year-old! From the mouths of babes?

Travel, anyone?

Any travel in your plans for 2023? I'm hoping to get in a few trips. But even if you don't want to brave the airports, perhaps you can travel vicariously by listening to these great songs that evoke, France, Spain, Italy, and New York. No mask needed!

Paris, France

Somewhere in Spain

Napoli, Italy (played in Brazil!)

New York, NY

Mask up!

Hate to sound like a broken record, but this is especially important advice for staying well these winter months.

- Wear a mask in indoor public spaces, or in a crowd
- Get vaccinated/boosted for both flu and Covid
- Keep your distance from others
- Try bumping elbows rather than greeting folks with a kiss on the cheek or a handshake
- Stay home if you don't feel well!

Many thanks!

Heartfelt thanks to those of you who donated to our fall campaign. As of December 20 we had raised a little over $72,000 and contributions are still coming in. Trite as it sounds, it really does take a village to keep our Villages doing all the great work we do! Thanks for helping us out!

TPV Lunch at Sam's on Main Street

The Final Journey: Acceptance, Control and Loving Life

A symposium presented by Novato Village featuring B. J. Miller, MD

Thursday, January 12, 10:30am – noon (doors open at 9:30am)

The Buck Institute for Research on Aging, 8001 Redwood Blvd, Novato

B. J. Miller, MD is an American physician, author, and speaker. Dr. Miller's career has been dedicated to moving healthcare towards a human-centered approach, on a policy as well as a personal level. Led by his own experiences as a patient, Dr. Miller advocates for the roles of our senses, community, and presence in designing a better ending. His discussion about end of life will be more existential and will include getting pleasure from time left. He sees patients and caregivers through his online palliative care service, Mettle Health (mettlehealth.com). This symposium was made possible by the Kenneth A. Berg Living Trust.

Cost is $10 for all Marin Village members and volunteers; $20 for others. Sign up and purchase tickets at this link: <https://marin.helpfulvillage.com/events/4800-the-final-journey:-acceptance,-control-and-loving-life---a-symposium-featuring-bj-miller,-md>
