

MARIN VILLAGES

Assisting Marin's older adults to remain independent in their homes and communities with dignity and grace

Our Volunteer Appreciation Party

by Lisa Brinkmann, Executive Director

It was an honor to be able to address the 120+ members, volunteers and guests that attended our Volunteer Appreciation Party on September 23rd.

Our volunteers are the heart of Marin Villages, answering requests each and every day and demonstrating the best of what it means to care about your neighbors and lend a helping hand. You cannot place a value on developing a relationship and making someone else, someone who otherwise would be a stranger, feel relevant, cared for and at ease. The rides provided and the conversations had in the cars, at home looking at computers and while hanging a shade, helps form friendships and in many cases connections that may or may not have existed before.

Marin Villages continues to be one of the few organizations that is able to provide personalized service to our older residents - helping them with the tasks they feel are most important to them - thanks to our volunteers.

As one of our member's recently wrote in a note: "your volunteer is so very kind and friendly. I'm 94 years old and she goes out of her way to help me. Thank you so much for her. We have become friends".

Did you know that in the last year alone, Marin Villages had over 450 activities posted on its website? These would not have happened without our volunteers.

Robert Hibbs, Cherie Sorokin,
Betty Williams

Our activities range from strenuous hikes on Mt. Tam to programs on Beethoven and Klimt; from social happy hours, to a wait-list only Death café. We have been collaborating with the Age-Friendly groups to co-host various speaker's series and hosted a multi-Village summer suppers. And of course, there are the monthly coffees, luncheons, movie and book groups

In the past 12 months, our volunteers have completed almost 6,000 requests!! While many are for rides, a large proportion of the rides were to visit with friends, attend classes, see spouses and partners during rehab and attend our own social events. Our handymen have moved furniture, made trips to the dumps, looked at doorbells, garbage disposals and lighting to either fix them or troubleshoot the problem for a professional. We are able to quickly and easily help with the tasks that allow our members to live on their own.

Janis, BJ and Carol

As Laura Bock, a Mill Valley Village member wrote:

I moved to Marin County from my native San Francisco five years ago. As a blind and low hearing person in my late sixties, I had had all my resources in place in San Francisco. Now what was I to do?

And then I stumbled upon a bunch of angels called Marin Villages.

And so, I toast all of you: to those who organize and run Marin Villages with such commitment and dedication; to those of you who volunteer your time to help us. We are treated with respect, sensitivity and good-natured interest in who we are and in our stories. You enable all of us to live our lives and remain as mobile and active as possible, and in the process, you have become friends.

Thanks to everyone who made this event special.

A special thanks to Board members, Sue Steele and Annemarie Clark, who chaired the committee responsible for making this event a success. Also, thanks to Anne Ramsay and Carolyn Jones who are in charge of table decorations, year after year; to Irv Gubman, Andy Egger and Larry Meredith for tending bar; and to Loulie Sutro, Suzie Pollak and Sandy Yoffie for being our "welcome committee", handing out the name tags; and everyone else who made this party a fun success!

Carole Sherick honored as the Nancy Forster Spirit of Marin Villages' awardee

Carole was nominated by the San Rafael Village steering committee and other members, summarizing her contributions to Marin Villages below:

Carol's dedication, enthusiasm and passion for the Marin Villages mission exemplifies the qualities exhibited by Nancy Forster, a pioneer in the founding of the organization.

Carole is one of our top service providers. She drives members, walks dogs, does companionship visits, walks with members, takes them to the Farmers Market and grocery shopping. Member Gloria Wilcox shared that "Carole is firmly dedicated to the principles of the Villages. She lives them with enthusiasm and joy and always with her sunny side up. She makes a big difference in my well-being and happiness as a senior."

Carole served as co-chair of San Rafael Village for the first three years, working tirelessly to build the Village. This included establishing programs, providing direct services and recruiting members and volunteers. Carole leads by example; always willing to step up when needed with a helping hand and a ready smile. Her enthusiasm is contagious! Her creativity and energy are hard to match.

For the past two years, Carole has been Chair of the Program Committee, steadily developing new and exciting programs to provide the social connections so important to our members and volunteers. Examples include a van excursion to the Golden Gate Conservatory of Flowers, with lunch and tour; two SMART train rides to Santa Rosa for lunch; supporting the Death Café (which has proved immensely popular); an upcoming Potluck Picnic with Novato Village, and numerous educational presentations, including Emergency Preparedness, Your Library, and a Balance workshop. Carole introduced Happy Hours to the Villages! That is in addition to the standard monthly coffees, lunches, movie nights and games that fill the calendar.

Carole Sherick with Lisa Brinkmann, Exec. Director

Carole is a true team player, one who can be depended upon for her leadership qualities.

Staying Social - It's More than Just Fun

Wednesday, October 17 1:00 p.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Where: Age-Friendly Intergenerational Center, 498 Tamalpais Dr., Corte Madera

Many of us lose contact with friends and family as we age. Life changes can make it hard to stay in touch. Furthermore, health challenges often prevent us from getting out and remaining active. But staying social is vital to our well-being. Research now shows that isolation is a major cause of decline and depression in older adults.

Dr. Nelson will present some of the latest findings on this topic as well as provide practical tips for keeping your social life, body and mind healthy. Presenter: Deb Nelson, Psy.D. San Rafael Clinical Psychologist specializing in working with older adults, chronic pain and chronic illness.

Marin Villages - Volunteer Training

When: Thursday, October 18, 2018 11:00 - 12:30 p.m.

Where: Marin Villages Community Conference Room

4340 Redwood Hwy, Ste F-138, San Rafael

Come learn about our volunteer program - how the dashboard works, tips on working with seniors and reminders of home safety. This is a highly recommended program for all volunteers, and anyone thinking of volunteering.

Let's Play Bocce Ball!

Friday, October 26 1:00 - 3:00 p.m.

Where: Marin Bocce, 550 B St., San Rafael

Bocce ball is back! Get ready for a fun afternoon with the Twin Cities Rollers, time to head back to the courts and let it roll! Join us for snacks, beverages, and some outdoor fun!
